The Two Sisters LLC Supports ScienceWorks with Portion of Sales

Ashland, Oregon
March 30, 2017

The Two Sisters LLC and ScienceWorks Hands-On Museum announce a new partnership wherein ScienceWorks will receive a portion of the The Two Sisters' product sales online and in Southern Oregon. The Two Sisters LLC is owned by Brent Moore and Bob Tewksbury. Moore was previously the Director of Operations at ScienceWorks. "I believe in the mission of ScienceWorks, and we wanted to give back to a place that had great meaning to us. ScienceWorks was an important part of my life and will continue to be special to me."

Executive Director Ann Dowdy is thrilled that the Museum has inspired such generosity in a former volunteer and employee. "Brent's contribution will support the educational programs at ScienceWorks." Through partnerships such as this one, ScienceWorks hopes to create strong community ties that directly benefit students and families.

The Two Sisters product line is available across Southern Oregon at Ray's Food Place, Sherm's Thunderbird, Sherm's Food 4 Less and Ashland's Own Shop'n Kart.

ScienceWorks Hands-On Museum is a non-profit educational science center that has been serving the Rogue Valley region since 2002. Located at 1500 East Main Street in Ashland, the museum is home to more than 100 exhibits, and hosts themed weekends, and ongoing fun, educational, science programs for all ages year-round. For more information, call (541) 482-6767 or visit www.scienceworksmuseum.org.

The Two Sisters LLC sells tamarind-flavored sauce, a dressing/marinade, and sticky rice. Originally founded in 2002 by two sisters in Northern California, the company was bought in 2016 by Brent Moore and Bob Tewksbury, and continues to sell both the original product and additional new products inspired by the flavors of the original sauce. More information can be found at www.thetwosistersllc.com or by calling 541-608-7424.
